

5 lakh devotees to attend function

OUR CORRESPONDENT

TARN TARAN, MAY 7

All possible efforts are being made to make convenient the coming of devotees reaching here on the 400th martyrdom of fifth Guru Arjun Dev.

The June 16 would be the 400th martyrdom day of the Guru. The state government, Shiromani Gurdwara Prabandhak Committee (SGPC), Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Prabandhak Committee and other religious organisations are organising functions in this regards here.

The June 16 would be the main attraction. The administration revealed that according to an estimate more than five lakh devotees are coming to attend the functions here. The state government has decided to announce the town a revenue district, according to the reports reached here.

The Kar Sewa going on under the supervision of Baba Jagtar Singh is giving a facelift to the town besides gold plating of the main gurdwara.

Huge gates are being built on a war footing at all the entry points of the town.

Kar Sewa sect has built toilets having modern facilities at different points of the town.

Baba Mohinder Singh, follower of the sect, told that about Rs 5 lakh was being spent on each toilet which is being collected from the sangat. Cold drinking water facility would be also provided.

Mr Jatinder Kumar Sood, president of the local municipal council, told that a grant of Rs 10 lakh has been given by Dr Manohar Singh Gill, member Rajya Sabha.